DAY 5

(SATURDAY, MAY 13TH)

NILE CRUISE + KOMOMBO TEMPLE + EDFU TEMPLE

We start our day with a visit to Komombo Temple, dedicated to two Egyptian gods - Horus the falcon god and Sobek the crocodile god. One interesting frieze shows ancient birthing and other medical techniques. Our guided tour also includes the Nilometer, a well-like structure used to measure the bounty of the Nile and as a way of setting tax levels. Reboarding our cruise ship we set sail again, enjoying breakfast and lunch as we glide by the riverbank villages that have changed very little since Pharaonic times. This afternoon we take horse-drawn carriages for a guided tour of the gigantic Temple of Edfu, the most perfectly-preserved temple in Egypt. This evening we pass through the locks at Esna and continue cruising down the Nile, with the lights of the villages twinkling all around us, to Luxor.

Second of 3 nights on our 5-Star
cruise ship
Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY 6

(SUNDAY, MAY 14TH)

HOT AIR BALLOON + QUEEN HATSHEPSUT + COLOSSI OF MEMNON + THOTH

At sunrise this morning we take a magical hot air balloon ride over the farms and villages of the West Bank, As we glide majestically through the dawn sky.

Next, we will visit an alabaster facility to see how real alabaster vases and statues are made.

We also have a guided tour of the funerary temple of the first woman to rule as a pharaoh, Queen Hatshepsut. On our way back to the Nile we stop to view the gigantic Colossi of Memnon statues, where new excavations have discovered the remains of vast funeral temples. And as a special, we are visiting the small not so known Temple of Thoth. Later this evening we have a guided tour of Luxor Temple by night.
